

Do you want to connect and create change in our community?

We're creating a new community-led project to improve wellbeing, connection and belonging called the Social Inclusion Action Group (SIAG).

If you live, work, study, or play in Brimbank, we want to hear from you.

Your voice matters

Have you ever felt lonely? Do you understand the importance of belonging?

Your voice and lived experience can help shape a more connected community.

We want to hear your stories, ideas and perspectives.

What is SIAG?

SIAG stands for Social Inclusion Action Group. This is a new group in Brimbank made up of local people who will make decisions about how funding is used to:

- Improve inclusion.
- Reduce loneliness.
- Support belonging in Brimbank.

What's in it for you?

- Learn new skills.
- Share your experiences, connections and knowledge.
- Be paid for your time.

How can you get involved?

Expressions of Interest to join SIAG Brimbank are open until Tuesday 21 October 2025.

Whether you have experience, passion or just want to make a difference - we want to hear from you.

Interested?

To submit your Expression of Interest, learn more, or get help with your application, contact us at:

 yoursay.brimbank.vic.gov.au

 9249 4000

 siag@brimbank.vic.gov.au

Wurundjeri and Bunurong Country

 131 450
Local call costs apply

