

AIR FORCE CADETS

INSPIRING TODAY, LEADING TOMORROW

The Australian Air Force Cadets (AAFC) provides an opportunity for youth aged 13-18, who are non Defence members, to gain self confidence, self discipline and leadership skills in an aviation-focussed, military-like environment.

As a cadet you will:

- Be part of a team and gain team building skills
- Develop leadership and survival skills
- Make new friends and have fun
- Experience challenges
- Learn to take responsibility
- Take part in physical education activities

As a cadet you'll learn about:

- Aviation
- Leadership
- Self-discipline
- Safe weapons handling
- Fieldcraft
- First aid
- Drill and ceremonial
- Communications and navigation skills

605 Squadron Parades on Monday evenings during the South Australian school Terms at Lonsdale Multi User Depot.

For more information about becoming a cadet please call 605 Squadron on (08) 8392 6601(Monday 1830-2130) or check out our Facebook page @605sqnaafc.
