

The background of the image is the flag of Russia, featuring three horizontal stripes of white, blue, and red from top to bottom. The flag has a wavy, draped appearance. The word "Russia" is centered in the blue stripe.

Russia

Lucy Lay

Introduction

Russia is a country in Eastern Europe and Northern Asia. It is the largest country in the world covering over 17 million square kilometres. The population in Russia is estimated to be around 146,013,510 this year. The capital city of Russia is Moscow known for its political opinion and its spiritual connection for 600 years Moscow has been the spiritual centre of the Russian Orthodox Church.

Traditions in Russia

There are more than 100 languages that are spoken in Russia which makes Russia very diverse with many different religions such as Russian-orthodox 20%, Muslim 15%, Christians 2% and many are non believers. With population growing in Russia there are many different and new traditions such as Ivan kupala Wichita is a tradition to celebrate the god of summer fertility were people sing and dance around a bonfire, Maslenitsa is a celebration of the dead like a funeral but more joyful and entertaining and Easter to celebrate the resurrection of Christ.

Lifestyle in Russia

Russia's landscape or environment is mainly broad forest, polar desert and snow. Some climate issues in Russia include water and air pollution, radioactive contamination, pollution from its space program, industrial pollution ,leaks from oil and gas pipelines. Some popular translation devices in Russia are taxi , micro bike, trolley bus and tram.

Landmarks in Russia

One popular landmark in Russia is St Basil cathedral it is a orthodox cathedral in red square Moscow St Basil cathedral is one of the most popular cultural symbols of Russia. Catherine palace is considered to be one of the most significant gems of Russia. The Catherine Palace is a Rococo palace it was the summer residence for many. Kremlin and red square is located in Moscow and is known as the heart of Moscow and considered to be the most beautiful place in Russia.

Conclusion

Russia is a country in Eastern Europe and Northern Asia. It is the largest country in the world covering over 17 million square kilometres. Russia's landscape or environment is mainly broad forest, polar desert and snow. One popular landmark in Russia is St Basil cathedral it is a orthodox cathedral in red square Moscow St Basil cathedral is one of the most popular cultural symbols of Russia. Here is just a bit of information on Russia.