

Bella's Bad Day

Bella screamed, "Help go away!" to the bear and she ran into the haunted house.

It was a hot and sunny day so she decided to explore the forest. Suddenly a bear growled behind her and it was a very LOUD growl.

Bella said, "You're too loud."

She blocked her ears and ran into the haunted house. The bear followed her.

The door slammed shut and there was glass everywhere.

It was dark and they got soaked from the rain coming through the roof.

They went to different corners of the house to hide. They were both terrified.

Suddenly there was thunder and lightning. Bella found an axe on the floor and broke the door down.

Bella and the bear raced outside and found a road.

Bella's Grandfather came past in his car and found her on the side of the road.

"I have been looking everywhere for you," he said.

They rushed home and her Mum gave her a big hug because she had been really worried.
