

Homework Grid Term 1 Weeks 7&8 Due Date: 21.03.14

Learning Intentions: to show responsibility and independence with your learning to follow work guidelines

| | | | |
|---|--|--|--|
|  | Current Events: Civics and Citizenship 1.What is the purpose of the various advertising posters in our streets at the moment? When is the election? 2.In which electorate is your house? 3.What parties are standing in this election? 4.Who is eligible to vote? | English: 1.Read aloud to OR be read to by a family member for 10 min each week night. 2.Vary the text and text type. 3.Record books on PRC sheet & back of diary AND minutes read for PAWS challenge. | Organisation Show Independence 1.Unpack your own bag each night; rinse out food containers. 2.Have diary signed each night. 3.Plan for Fruity Friday – cut up veg/fruit ready to ‘build’ 4.Be sure to spread the h/wk tasks over the fortnight. |
| | Maths: Odd and Even numbers 1.Take notice of house numbers in your street. What did you find? 2.Take notice of registration plates on cars in your family. Odd or even? | Online Learning: 1.Numerical Acumen online as often as possible (10 min per day 5 days a wk) 2.Spelling City www.spellingcity.com try free activities with your words or other LNPS / Cate Berden lists | Crazy Hair Day: 11 March 2014 1.Sketch of what you think you looked like. Add labels/caption. 2.What is Leukaemia? 3.Why did SEM decide on this care and concern project? |
| | Be Active: Practise your musical instrument OR Sing along to your favourite song OR Create a dance for your favourite song. | Independent Studies; 1.Complete class work 2.Complete work set by LNPS Choir, Mother Tongue or Ethnic School. | Sharing the load: 1.Volunteer to do some chores in the LAUNDRY several times. 2.Record task/time. |

Homework Grid Term 1 Weeks 7&8 Due Date: 21.03.14

Learning Intentions: to show responsibility and independence with your learning to follow work guidelines

| | | | |
|---|--|--|--|
|  | Current Events: Civics and Citizenship 1.What is the purpose of the various advertising posters in our streets at the moment? When is the election? 2.In which electorate is your house? 3.What parties are standing in this election? 4.Who is eligible to vote? | English: 1.Read aloud to OR be read to by a family member for 10 min each week night. 2.Vary the text and text type. 3.Record books on PRC sheet & back of diary AND minutes read for PAWS challenge. | Organisation Show Independence 1.Unpack your own bag each night; rinse out food containers. 2.Have diary signed each night. 3.Plan for Fruity Friday – cut up veg/fruit ready. 4.Be sure to spread the h/wk tasks over the fortnight. |
| | Maths: Odd and Even numbers 1.Take notice of house numbers in your street. What did you find? 2.Take notice of registration plates on cars in your family. Odd or even? | Online Learning: 1.Numerical Acumen online as often as possible (10 min per day 5 days a wk) 2.Spelling City www.spellingcity.com try free activities with your words or other LNPS / Cate Berden lists | Crazy Hair Day: 11 March 2014 1.Sketch of what you think you looked like. Add labels/caption. 2.What is Leukaemia? 3.Why did SEM decide on this care and concern project? |
| | Be Active: Practise your musical instrument OR Sing along to your favourite song OR Create a dance for your favourite song. | Independent Studies; 1.Complete class work 2.Complete work set by LNPS Choir, Mother Tongue or Ethnic School. | Sharing the load: 1.Volunteer to do some chores in the LAUNDRY several times. 2.Record task/time. |