

1/2GK's Wonderings About Jesus Time in the Desert

We have been learning about

- I think angels cared for Jesus by caring for him. I also think the angels cared for Jesus by listening to what was happening in the desert. Ruby
- The angels carried Jesus out of the desert. Why did Jesus stay there for forty days? Aspen
- He felt very hungry and hot, very thirsty and dry. Esther L

- Jesus said to God, he was hungry and thirsty. He also told God he was tempted by more than two people. Leonie
- The annoying people that said silly words to him in the desert. Jet
- Once upon a time the men that baptised Jesus felt fresh then he felt tired because he had to survive in the desert. I wonder if Jesus and God are the same person? Will Hansen
- He would have felt hot. He would have felt thirsty. Josh
- I wonder how he would have felt in the desert for forty days. The angels took him back home. Esther B

- People were telling Jesus to do things he didn't want to do. I wonder why did the angels carry him home? Amelia S
- Jesus got very hot, dry and thirsty. I also wonder how Jesus survived. Patrick
- I think that angels supported Jesus a lot because it was tempting to say not yes because he did want to. He tried not to think about fasting and not think about being in the desert. He tried to survive with his angels. Romily
- The angels were really helpful and they gave him a lot of food. Jack
- He was so hungry because he had people coming to ask him questions about if he was Jesus. Elliot

- I wonder how Jesus stayed in the desert for 40 days. He was thirsty and he was hungry and he was so dry and hot. Go would pray for him. I wonder how Jesus stayed. How did Jesus feel? Was he lonely and sad?. He didn't have anyone to play with and he didn't have anyone to take care of him. Linh
- I wonder what Jesus talked to God about when he was in the desert, maybe that he was hungry and hot. I think that is what Jesus talked about. Will Hilet
- Jesus and God were in the desert. Jesus stayed for forty days. Mikayla

- Could he survive? Did he like the desert? What names were his angels? Was Jesus burning hot? Was it a long trip? Harriet
- Jesus tried to fast and not to drink or eat; he tried not to think he was in the desert. He tried to survive. How did he survive? Edo
- He felt sad, tired, thirsty, hungry, hot, sleepy, dry. He felt like he was in the sandy world. He felt like he was riding a camel. He felt like he was in the outback. He felt like he was in a tornado? He felt like he was in a windy zoo. Hannah
- He felt so so hot and very thirsty. He looked so dry. He was fasting. He was praying every day. It was so so hot. He was very hungry. God was hungry, but he survived and that is what matters. God is important to me. Mia

- Jesus tried to not think about fasting. He was tempted to drink. I wonder how he survived. Evelyn
-
- I am thinking about how Jesus stayed alive. I think he felt hungry and very hot and thirsty. Harry
- I think Jesus was starving. I think he survived by taking a big nap and that's how he rested. Aasha
- I think Jesus survived the desert by doing prayers everyday and believing in God and Himself. Lucas

- I think Jesus was dehydrated and hungry and he was dying to have a drink and something to eat. I think he didn't have a good sleep.

Alannah