

MaroonDAH's Bushland Treasures Day!

Saturday 17 February
10:30am to 3:30pm
MaroonDAH Access Gallery
32 Greenwood Ave, Ringwood

FREE and open to all ages

As part of our current exhibition Drawn from the Collection: MaroonDAH's Bushland Treasures by botanical illustrator Ruth Jackson we welcome you to join us for what will be a fascinating series of talks about MaroonDAH's Bushlands. Hear from the experts about the fascinating plant life of native orchids and the ecology of our local environment while learning from local conservation groups about what measures can be taken to protect our bushland treasures.

Speakers:

10:30am MaroonDAH's bushland management

Derek Ashton (Bushland Management Officer, MaroonDAH City Council)

11:30am Orchids through history: what can we learn from them?

Dr Graeme Lorimer, local environmental scientist with a specialisation in the flora, fauna and ecology of MaroonDAH and surrounding areas.

12:15-1:15pm - Lunch available at MaroonDAH Federation Estate Café

1:30pm Wildlife in MaroonDAH

Peter Rogers, Ringwood Field Naturalists

2:30pm Threats to MaroonDAH's bushland: keeping ecosystems healthy

Peter Goegan, specialist in MaroonDAH's local natural environment
