

RAISING THE TITANIC

By Angus

INTRODUCTION

The Titanic was meant to be the biggest and fastest ship of its time but it met its demise on its maiden voyage from Britain to New York

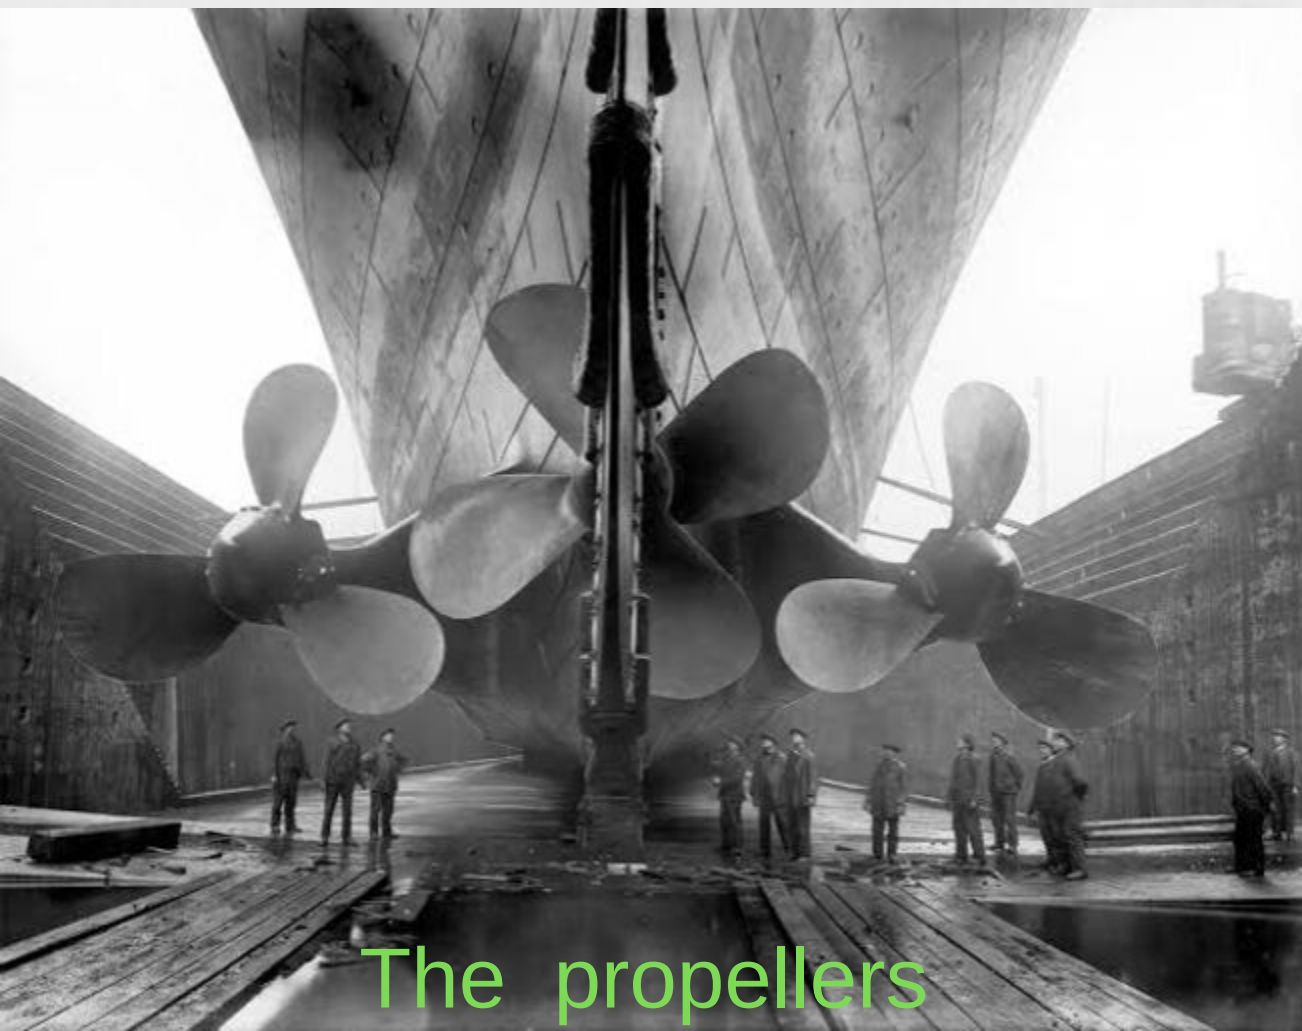

How big?

The Titanic was a massive ship in the way it stood over everything. The insane length of the ship was 269.1m with a height of 32m running the ship was 37m across propellers and 19m tall boilers

did you know

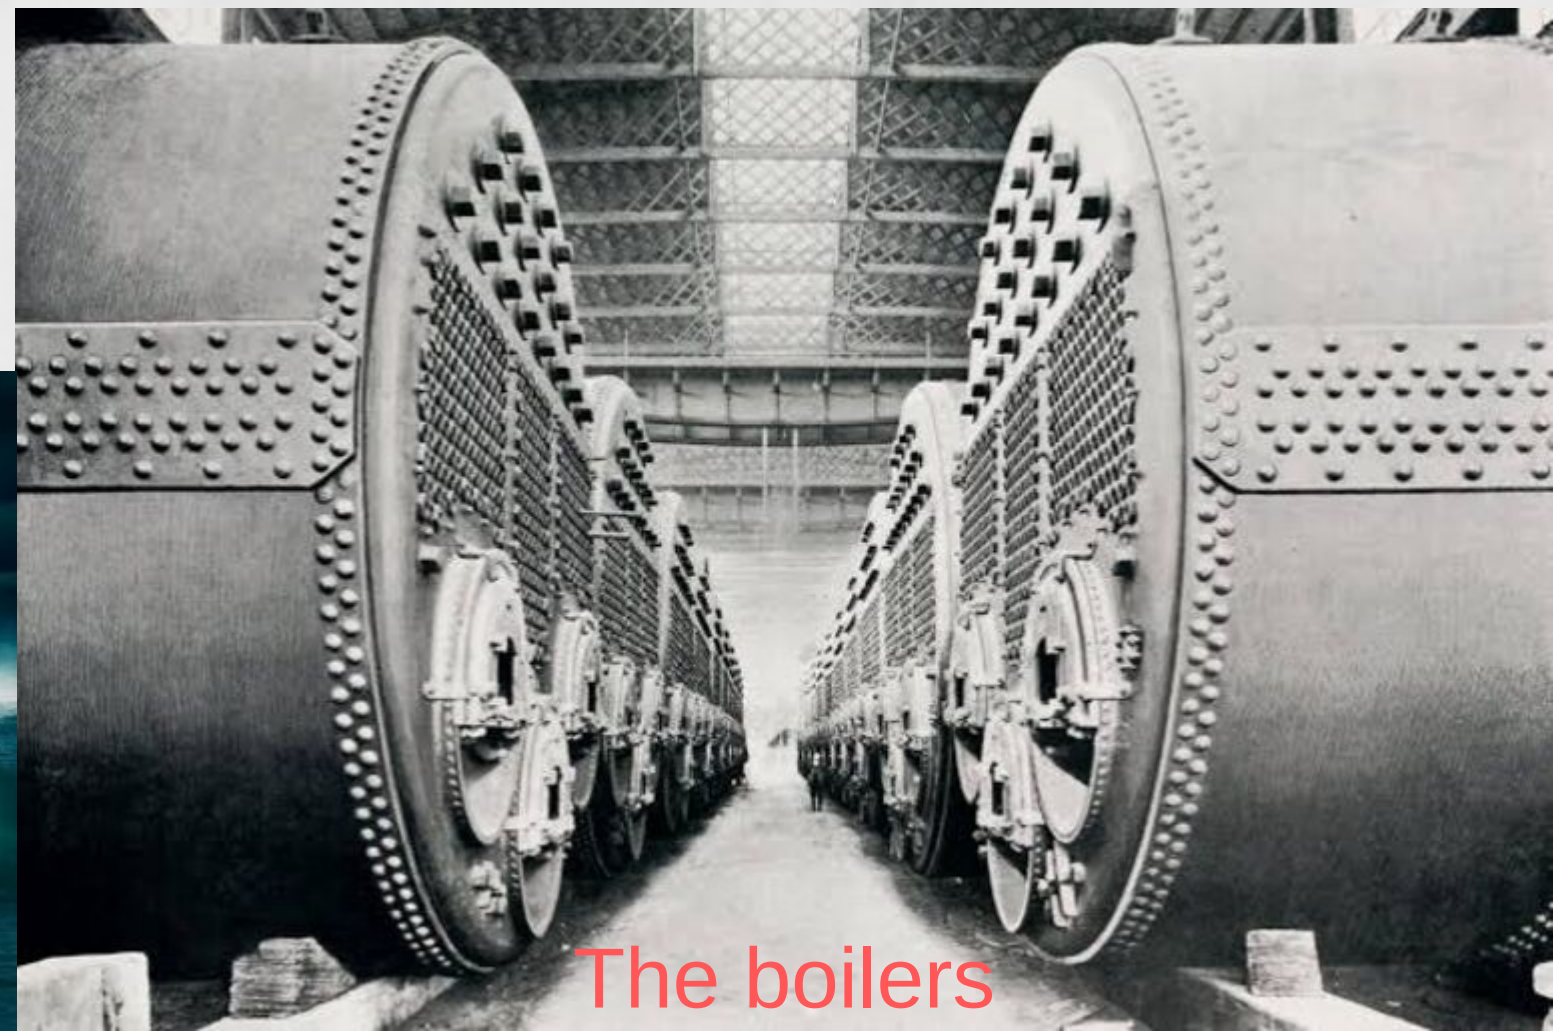

8 people died making the Titanic

The propellers

The length

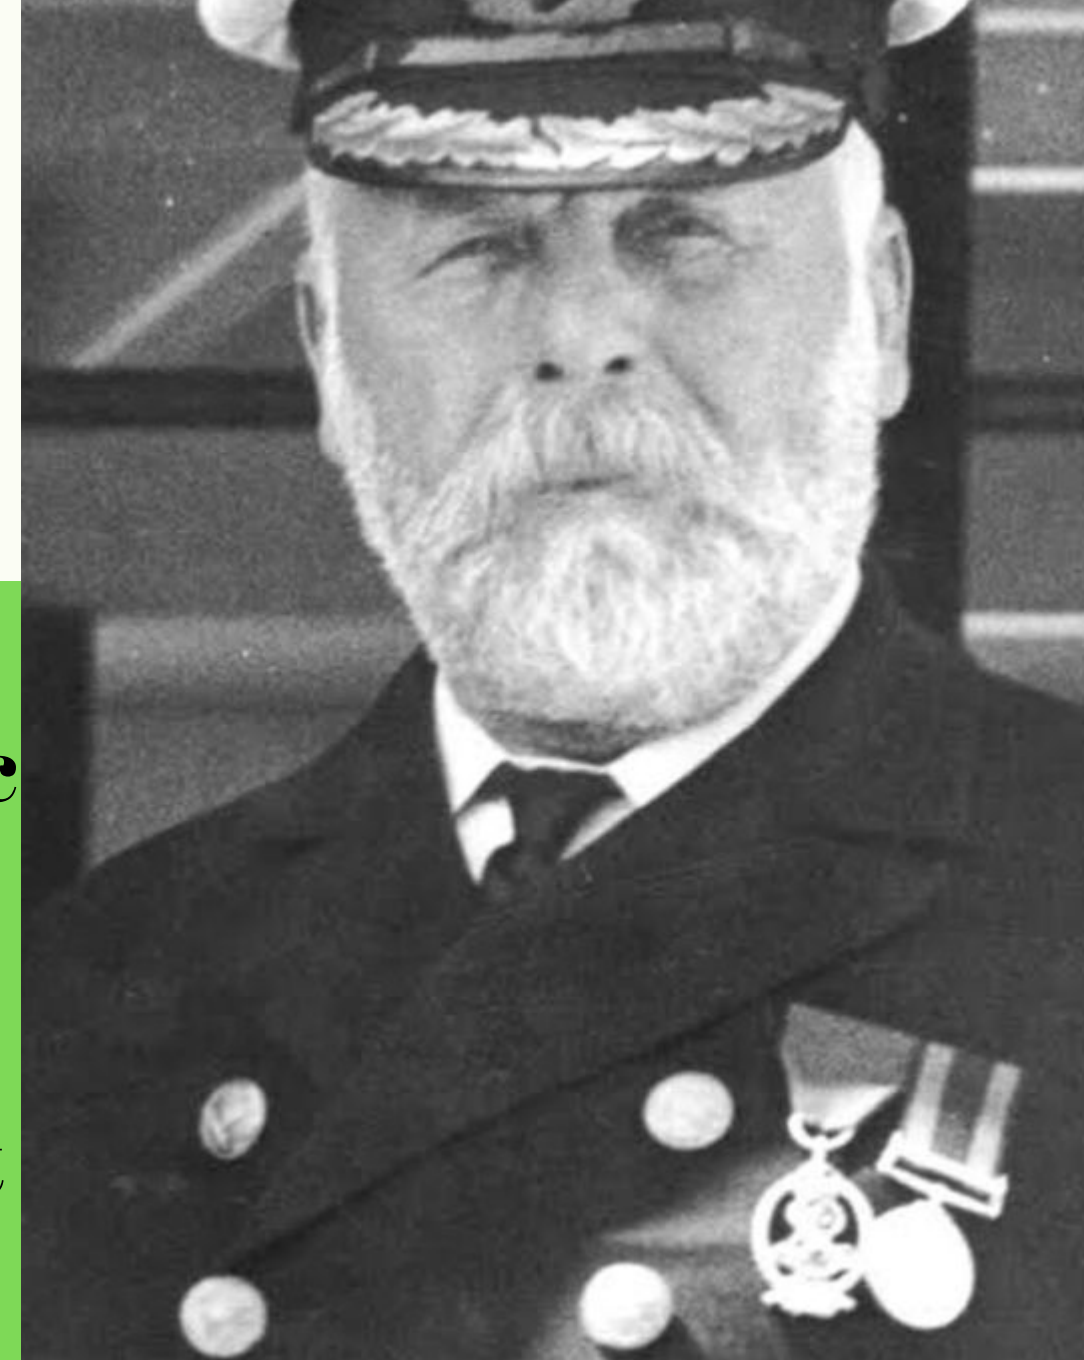

The boilers

THE CREW

Have you ever wondered how many people manned the Titanic? The Titanic was only manned by 9 main crew (including the captain) The captain's name was Captain Edward Smith. Most of the crew were over 50 years old

DID YOU KNOW

There were 8 musicians on the Titanic that played while the ship was sinking

On the Titanic there were 3 classes 1st class wich cost $48,732 dollars in today's monney