To my beloved Parishioners,

In this difficult time we are experiencing, let us all remember that we should be together although it can't be physically but in spirit. I thank you for your continuous support for the Church and for your priests. I am very grateful that you keep us in your prayers.

Though the Church is close, we as the real Church will never closed. We are always open to the needs of others and we are one with those who are in need and sick. I am sending you some documents for you to pray with your family and celebrate this solemn season even we can't do it together. We celebrate mass everyday and including weekends and offer your intentions as well. We provide the weekly bulletin and other materials from the church for you to have every week. You can get it from the front door of the parish office.

If you want to avail the sacrament of reconciliation, you can ring the Parish Ph 0267522886. In case of emergency we always make ourselves available.

Kind regards,

Father Abmar
