A Message from Fr. Jerald

"Dear Parishioners,

I would like to share an update regarding the direction of our Parishes, the support structures in place, and how we envision moving forward. After returning from my sabbatical, which provided me with valuable time for growth and reflection, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your continued support during this period.

I return with a renewed focus on advancing our Parishes' journey, with a key emphasis on working more collaboratively and sharing resources to better serve our communities. Additionally, we will likely not be receiving a replacement for Fr. Joel as an assistant priest. In light of this, it is crucial that we prioritise streamlining our efforts and maximizing the resources available to us.

As part of this process, we have started restructuring our Parish offices to improve efficiency, procedures, and processes. We are also reviewing our current roles to ensure they meet the evolving needs of our community. Similar to the shared Finance Officer role across both Parishes, we have identified further opportunities to enhance our collaboration. To support me in managing our Parishes, I have engaged a Parish Secretary who will work across both offices, alongside Ida and Felicia. This is only the beginning of our journey, and there will be more developments ahead.

Once again, I thank you for your continued support, and I ask you to join me in welcoming Liza Jansz, who will be joining the Parish Office team at the end of October".

Thank you!!!

A heartfelt thank you to Sr. Maureen and to everyone who assisted and participated in the Multicultural Rosary on Wednesday night. It was a beautiful event, and it was wonderful to witness our community coming together in prayer. Your presence and prayers made the evening a special and uplifting occasion.

-Fr Jerald

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God is something alive and active; it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth. Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another, 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said, 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.' Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land – not without persecutions – now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.'

World Mission Sunday – 20 October In Mongolia, vulnerable people requiring social services often face stigma for using them. Those in need are often impacted by domestic violence or homelessness. Unfortunately, support services are limited in number and the demand for them is growing. This means some of our brothers and sisters in Mongolia are going without the help they need. We invite you to support the Church in Mongolia on their journey to provide more support for vulnerable people in need. Your kindness will ensure that more of our brothers and sisters can receive the assistance they need to get back on their feet.
