Parents and guardians please note that besides the above planned activities, children have the opportunity to participate in other activities of their choice, such as dramatic play, art and craft, music, board games, reading, building and construction, outdoor sports and games. Children may bring their toys and electronics from home but please ensure they are clearly labelled with their name to avoid loss. Families please remember to collect your child's belongings when you leave the service as we have noted that many unlabelled items are continuously being left behind. There is a lost property box at the front entrance of the service, please remember to check this regularly.
See you all soon!
