Tournament Information for Parents

This year we will again run with the format based on player ability and the balls the player is being coached with.

We believe this format will give entrants the best chance to compete against juniors of a similar standard and will give the best opportunity for all the juniors to have an enjoyable day on the courts.

The Orange Ball group will be played as a “novice” event.

For juniors entering in the Green and Yellow Ball groups, we will run a separate boy and girl competitions if sufficient entries are received to do so.

Presentations will take place at the conclusion of play.
