

IN FOCUS CAREERS

FEB 2019

Welcome Back Everyone

I hope you had a great holiday.

Isn't Perth the best place in the world to spend summer!? I have been to Fringe, live music, outdoor movies, twilight drinks down at the river.

I managed to get some "work" done. I spoke at the Future Health Professionals workshop for Scitech. If you know students who want to be doctors, this program seems like a great intro.

I tried the Stanford university Design Your Life course. Not a lot of new stuff in there, but I liked the decoupling of "passion" from "career".

I got some requests for career advice from students at your schools. Thanks to those who sent them to me. I referred those who found me by accident back to you as the local experts.

I was so flattered to see that the brilliant Tim Berners Lee had used MY superhero pic on his new tech website. It is great to be in such esteemed company, even if just on this.

I hope you are ready for a great ride through 2019.

I will do what I can to deliver insanely great career information so that you can be the world's best 21st Century Career Professionals.

Future Health Professionals Program

Thirty year 11 and 12 students from high schools around Western Australian took part in the Future Health Professionals program during the holidays.

The program gives hands-on experience in one of the country's leading tertiary hospitals, Sir Charles Gairdner Hospital, with components of the program also taking place at Harry Perkins Institute of Medical Research and Perth Children's Hospital.

It is a week-long program for students who are passionate about studying medicine and health sciences run by Scitech and the Department of Postgraduate Medical Education, in collaboration with the Centre for Nursing Education at Sir Charles Gairdner Hospital,

Watch for announcements about the 2020 program HERE.

Murdoch Horizons Summer School

While one group of students was off learning about health careers during the holidays another group of 32 students, who were about to enter Year 12, did the Murdoch Horizons Summer School.

The Summer School delivers a range of core and elective units over 3 weeks in January. Students also learn what it's like to go to university, they find their way around and they meet new people in the group.

The 2018 group kept in touch after the course. It would be good to know if they consulted with each other when making their choices for this year.

You can find out about the Horizons Summer School HERE.

Students get into the Gig Economy

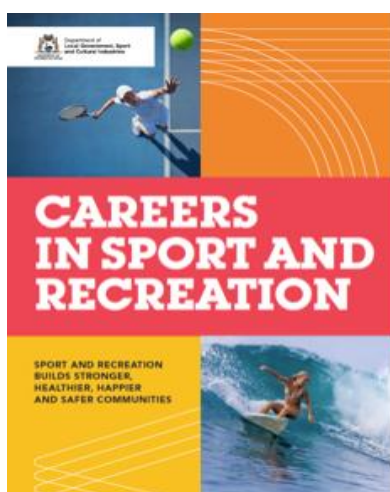

Entertainment and leisure industry employment is growing... in a gig way.

A collaboration of students and staff from St George's Anglican Grammar School, spent their holidays preparing for and appearing at Fringe.

Electricity was formed out of a week-long cross-curricular workshop at the end of 2016. It led to the formation of Electricity as a permanent group... that is now getting gigs at Fringe!!

You can read more HERE.

Guide to Sport and Recreation Careers

The gig economy seems to be the way to go with sport and rec careers.

There is no one path into these careers and they often start off with unpaid "work".

This guide has been developed to provide you with an overview of the many roles in the sport and recreation sector to assist your career decision making. Various study options and work experience have also been included. Download the guide HERE.

6 February Meet the Innovator

I thought I would go to this. If you want to discover how to be more entrepreneurial in your career I think this will be high level but interesting.

Core is providing the chance to hear Professor Ray Wills, a global leader in sustainable energy and authoritative commentator on sustainability across all sectors including resources, energy infrastructure, the built environment, and clean technology.

Comparisons of Actual and Indicative ATAR's 2019

Bachelor degree courses with an ATAR cut-off rank 5 or more ABOVE the indicative ATAR.

This table shows data relating to offers made through TISC as published on the TISC website. Offers made directly by institutions are not included.

- Minimum rank for consideration: Indicates the minimum ATAR/Selection Rank required to be eligible for entry to the course, subject to meeting any other requirements and places being available.
- Lowest ATAR offered a place: The ATAR listed here is the 'raw' ATAR, excluding any university-specific adjustments.

University	Course	Minimum Rank	Actual ATAR cut-off
Curtin	Education (Secondary Education) - Humanities and Social Sciences Education in Economics	70.00	80.55
	Education (Secondary Education) - Mathematics Education	70.00	75.15
	Education (Secondary Education) - Science Education in Biology	70.00	76.85
	Education (Secondary Education) - Science Education in Chemistry	70.00	89.70
	Education (Secondary Education) - The Arts Education in Drama	70.00	75.05
	Education (Secondary Education) - The Arts Education in Visual Arts	70.00	78.10
	Engineering (Electrical and Electronic Engineering); Science (Science) in Data Science (double degree)	80.00	92.05
	Science (Applied Geology); Commerce in Finance (double degree)	70.00	75.15
	Science (Applied Geology); Science in Geophysics (double degree)	75.00	82.10

ECU	Joondalup- Education (Secondary) - Mathematics Education	70.00	82.20
	Science (Security)	70.00	91.15
	Sustainability	70.00	75.10
	Technology (Electronic and Computer Systems)	70.00	85.80
	Mt Lawley- Arts	70.00	83.00
	Health Science	70.00	77.70
Murdoch	Arts in Community Development	70.00	82.95
	Arts in Indonesian	70.00	81.60
	Arts in Japanese	70.00	75.15
	Arts in Sociology	70.00	81.05
UWA	None

It is interesting to note the higher than anticipated ATAR for many of the Bachelor of Education courses at Curtin.

The biggest jump is the ECU Bachelor of Science (Security) degree which had a minimum ATAR of 70 but the actual cut-off is 91.15.

From UMAT to UCAT – External Exam for Medicine Changes

The new UCAT system actually seems better than the old UMAT system.

In the past there was only one possible time for the exam and rural, regional and remote students had to come to Perth after the mid-year holidays to do them. Now you book in to do your test in July and it looks like you will get your results quicker.

The instructions for the University Clinical Aptitude Test (UCAT) are clearer than the old UMAT instructions and the whole approach seems to have been brought into the 21st Century.

You can find information about the new approach HERE including a lot of information for potential candidates with special needs. There are practice tests and resources and clear instructions on what to expect in the test on the site.

Students wishing to apply for to do medicine at Curtin or those who wish to apply for a Direct Entry place at UWA medicine or dentistry for 2020 will need to do this test in July.

You can register from 1 March and registrations close on 17 May. Testing happens in July.

TIP: When I searched for "UCAT" I found a lot of sites that were businesses selling coaching on the new test. I thought they were the official UCAT site at first. This is the address for the official UCAT site <https://www.ucatofficial.com/ucat-anz/>

NOTE: If you look at the Curtin Medicine Handbook for 2019 it will mention UMAT exams not UCAT. The UCAT will come into operation in 2020.

Caitlin Whittle Australian School-based Apprentice of the Year Award

From Swan Valley Anglican Community School.

Caitlin studied for a Certificate II in Hospitality while she juggled five ATAR subjects. She has thrived in the workplace, crediting the experience with increasing her confidence and dedication. Her grades have also improved.

Winner

Caitlin Whittle - Western Australia

Caitlin Noble Vocational Student of the Year

After completing a Commerce degree, Caitlan did an internship with Telethon which sparked her passion for the health industry. While at Princess Margaret Hospital, Caitlan was inspired to move into a clinical role.

Now employed as an anaesthetic technician at King Edward Memorial Hospital, Caitlan has been commended by her peers for going above and beyond to improve patient care. As an active volunteer for Telethon, she enjoys seeing how children benefit from fundraising.

Winner

Caitlan Noble - Western Australia

Soleil White Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Student of the Year

Soleil recently completed a Certificate IV in Aboriginal/Torres Strait Islander Primary Health Care and is now undertaking a Diploma of Nursing. Her training has given her the confidence to be an advocate for Aboriginal health care and undertake further studies. As the mother of a two-year-old, she is extremely motivated to create a better quality of life for future generations.

What's an Apprenticeship/Traineeship??

An apprenticeship or traineeship is a CONTRACT that you sign up for.

- An employer signs and contract agreement to take you on for a training wage; and
- You sign up saying you will do your best to learn and to STAY in the job for the duration of the contract.

Your contract can last from one to four years depending on the job. You learn on the job AND go to TAFE (or similar) to do off the job training.

There are two main organisations that can help you to get the right information about Apprenticeships and Traineeships.

1. Apprenticeship Network Providers and
2. Group Training Organisations.

Start with an Apprenticeship Network Provider as they will help you with careers information then pass you on to a Group Training Organisation that will help you find a job in the industry you have chosen.

The Group Training Organisation will be your partner through your apprenticeship. If you have no trouble you may not see them much. If you start missing work or have trouble with your boss, they are the ones to contact.

For more information go to How to Get an Apprenticeship in WA

A Cert II Qualifies You for a Pre-Apprenticeship

If you don't meet OLNA or NAPLAN requirements you can still get into a pre-apprenticeship.

Entry to some of the popular pre-apprenticeships is very competitive so a Cert II doesn't guarantee you a spot. If you back up your application with work experience or hobbies in the field you are applying for, you will improve your chances of getting in.

Pre-apprenticeships start throughout the year. You can find a pre-apprenticeship course in your area HERE.

Register with an Australian Apprenticeship Support Network to find information about apprenticeships and traineeships. Find your closest provider HERE.

New Course - Diploma of Applied Fashion Design and Merchandising (Business and Merchandising)

The Fashion Business and Merchandising pathway at South Metropolitan TAFE gives students creative fashion business skills such as fashion forecasting and buying; visual merchandising and digital engagement; and marketing and social media.

This course would improve graduates' opportunities to find work in the fashion industry. Students learn the legal, financing and trade essentials for fashion enterprise and the import and export of product.

This course includes an internship component in a fashion business environment.

Get Your Training Bargains HERE!

Each year the Department of Training checks out what occupations are in highest demand and it bases its funding for courses on that.

In 2018 there was a shortage of farmers for example, so in 2019 those courses will be much more affordable than courses in real estate services, where the demand is going down.

Where there are skills shortages there are jobs, higher pay and cheaper training.

13 February CDAA Career Advisors Breakfast

The first Career Advisors breakfast for the year will be at Dome in East Vic Park at 7am on 13th February. You just pay for your own breakfast. Lisa Laing who organises the breakfast get togethers likes to know how many are coming so that she can let the Dome staff know.

20 – 22 February Future of Youth Employment Forum

There is a strong showing from this network at the Future of Youth Employment Forum. Maureen Johnson from Ursula Frayne, Michael Openshaw from St Norbert's and I, are all presenting on Wednesday afternoon.

I hope you can come along to see us being insanely great!!

You can find out about the Forum HERE.

Explore ECU for Educators Day

These uni information days are the bread and butter of careers advisors.

ECU's career educators program for 2019 is:

22 March at their South West campus.

5 April Mt Lawley and WAAPA

24 May Joondalup.

Online registration is not yet available. You can contact ECU HERE.

Careers Resources

Careers in Grain Offer to Attend School Careers Events

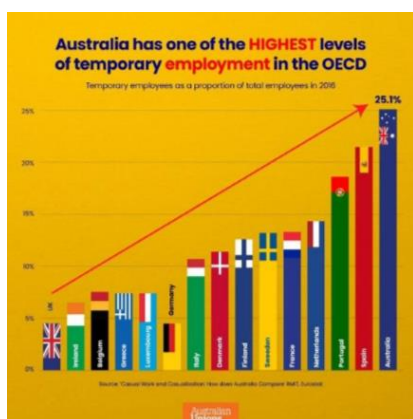

We probably grow more grain than... well... a whole lot of people.

There are lots of opportunities in the industry that students just don't know about. The Careers in Grain people sent through this message:

Last year, we attended 30 different school and university events and look forward to building on the momentum and meeting even more students and job seekers. Be sure to let us know if you hear of any events that you'd love to see us at!

If you would like to have them at your event, contact Kayla Evans.

Work Health and Safety Teaching Resources

Unions WA has put out OH&S teaching resources.

They include a resource on bullying and one on OH&S when you are in insecure work such as that experienced in the gig economy..

The union has an online library of teaching resources.

You can download the resources HERE.

CEAWA Workshop

In October the CEAWA ran a Careers and Enterprise workshop on how to Engage and Future Proof Your Students. The resources from the workshop are available on Padlet HERE.

Agrifood VET Toolbox for Schools

Agriculture related VET programs will soon have access to a new Agrifood teaching resources. It is being developed by the Food, Fibre and Timber Industries Training Council to support Year 11 and 12 students doing agriculture programs.

Anyone wanting more information should contact Paul Etheredge on 93612899 or email projects@ffittrainingcouncil.com.au

Coggle Map of Useful Careers Websites

A number of people requested a copy of this Coggle Map that I put together last year. I have updated it and I am happy to send people a link to it.

I can't embed the map with working links but if you email me I will give you access to it.

Careers Research

The Capable Country Mitchell Report

It is rare that I am not full of praise for Mitchell Reports but this one leaves me lukewarm.

The Capable Country was published late last year and extolls the virtues of developing general capabilities across the education sector. Any mention of the need to develop expertise across domains is difficult to find.

On the plus side, The Capable Country recommends a Strategy for Implementing a Capability Led Curriculum which includes sharing effective practices and drawing on existing assessment of general capabilities.

You can find the Report HERE.

The Changing Nature of Work

This will be one of the most significant reports for careers professionals this year. It deals with the big picture and paints an optimistic future.

- It accepts the move from companies to platforms as an employment model. It analyzes these changes and considers how governments can best respond.
- It identifies the need for workers to be better at problem-solving, teamwork and adaptability.

You can download the Report HERE.

Handbook for Secondary School Career Guidance

This comes out of the University of Malta and includes input from careers programs in a number of countries.

In the second half it talks about the importance of Partnerships in Provision of career development:

This Handbook has already noted several times that while school based career guidance specialists have a pivotal role to play in the design, coordination, delivery, evaluation and constant improvement of the career education programme in a secondary school, they can only be truly effective when they work with others, both within their institution and outside of it.
