

BIG SUMMER READ

COMPLETE CHALLENGES AND WIN PRIZES!

Kingston Libraries' Big Summer Read is a free program for ages 0-18 years, aimed at nurturing literacy skills, boosting reading over summer, and winning prizes!

Come and explore our libraries' collections - our huge range of books and audiobooks, both physically and digitally, are ready and waiting for you to read.

HOW TO ENTER:

1 Register via the Beanstack app.

2 To register, you can:

- Download for free from the App Store or Google Play
- Find out more at library.kingston.vic.gov.au/big-summer-read
- Call the library on 1300 135 668.
- Visit the library and chat with our friendly staff.

3 Start reading! Add the title of the books you have read into your Beanstack account.

4 Complete the Big Summer Read challenge by reading 10 books to be in the draw for the major prizes.

The first 500 people to read and log 10 books, come in and collect a drink bottle or a yoyo!

For more chances to win, keep reading! Every 10 books logged gets you another chance in the major prize draw.
