A little bit from the cast...

Hayley Greensmith (Year 10)

My role in legally blonde is Elle Woods! The best thing about Legally Blonde is that I get to perform with my friends and get to dance and sing at school. My favourite moment in the show is when Elle Woods finally realises that she loves Law - it shows how smart Elle really is and that she's more than the blonde stereotype. If I had to describe Legally Blonde in two words, it would be teamwork and passion; shows like this don't happen by themselves. We've had to work together to create big routines and perfect things as a group. We also have incredible passion towards this show, and it's been so lovely to see people show up and give it their all for something they love.

Rocky Puglisi (Year 12)

Hi! My role in Legally Blonde is the all great and amazing, Warner Huntington the III. I also help to direct a few scenes within the show to better help those who are a bit stuck! This ensures that no one feels left behind and just makes the process feel a lot smoother. The best part about being in the production for Legally Blonde would easily be the experience, if you always start off small in these sorts of productions you will have the knowledge and confidence to be able to continue in such field and move onto even bigger productions in Melbourne or even around the world! My favourite moments are the larger scenes where I myself look very confused on what the main character 'Elle Woods' is doing. Can't say any spoilers but look out for some of my reactions or even improv! Two words to describe Legally Blonde can be summed down to the very best words imaginable, chaotic and uplifting. Really due to how much happens in each scene chaotic is the only word I can think of, and there are lots of heartfelt moments where bringing someone help, can help them a lot. Hence the word 'uplifting'!

John Vincent Juan (Year 12)

My role in Legally blonde is Emmett Forrest, a Harvard law student who acts as Elle Wood's Mentor. He is kind and intelligent who helps Elle Woods gain confidence and helps her with the challenges she faces. The best thing about being in a school production is the fun of working with people, the opportunity to work with friends, the excitement of performing, the chance to express yourself and try new things beyond what you're used to. One of my favourite moments in the show is, "Chip on My Shoulder". I enjoy performing that scene because it is both humorous and meaningful, it really shows the energy and the personality of the characters. If I had to describe Legally Blonde in two words it would be fun and encouraging because the show is positive and full of energy, it encourages everyone to believe in themselves.

Sylas Barker (Year 9)

My role in Legally Blonde is the arrogant, pompous professor Callahan. The best part of the production is the acting; I get to have fun with this character and monologue. I think the best part is the whole "What you Want" scene. If I was to describe Legally Blonde in two words, they are awesome and fun because drama is the best.

Alexis Humphrey (Year 7)

My role in Legally Blonde is the ensemble, a Harvard Law student, and the Bailiff in the court scene. The best this about being in Legally Blonde is trying new things and getting out of my comfort zone. One of my favourite moments in the show is when I take someone to jail and the opening number, "Omigod You Guys". If I was to describe Legally Blonde in two words it would be fun and energetic, because the dances are fun and easy to do but we all do it so energetically.

Abigail Mogford-Jellet (Year 7)

My role in Legally Blonde is being part of the ensemble. The best thing about being in the production is how the team all works together to get the dances and singing right, and how everyone is so encouraging and enthusiastic about it. One of my favourite moments in the show is when we dance to Legally Blonde Remix. If I was to describe Legally Blonde in two words it would be awesome and bright, because the show is bright and colourful and the singing and choreography are awesome and have really cool dances.

Addison Proud (Year 9)

My role in Legally Blonde is the ensemble, choreographer and the stylist. The best thing about Legally Blonde is getting to know and work with people I haven't met before. One of my favourite moments in Legally Blonde is the "Chip on My Shoulder" dance. If I was to describe Legally Blonde in two words, they would be energetic and bright because everyone is so kind and happy.

Paige Fox (Year 8)

My role in Legally Blonde is being part of the ensemble. The best thing about being in Legally Blonde is singing and dancing and seeing what everyone can improve on to make it better. One of my favourite moments in the show is when the cheerleaders come in for "What You Want" - it's very dramatic when we all come in and that's what musicals need. If I had to describe Legally Blonde in two words, it would be fun and exciting because of all the friends I made when I joined the musical. I've met some people I never knew, and I've sang my heart out with my new and old friends that are in the musical.

Ellie Jackson (Year 10)

My role in Legally Blonde is Pilar (a Delta Nu), and I'm also one of the choreographers. The best thing about being in Legally Blonde is getting to be part of such a fun, high-energy show with amazing music, dancing, and a cast that makes every rehearsal enjoyable. One of my favourite moments in the show is seeing Elle prove everyone wrong and watching the whole cast come together during the big musical numbers. If I had to describe Legally Blonde in two words it would be upbeat and energetic because it's full of confidence, humour, catchy songs.
