

INTERGENERATIONAL MORNING TEA - MERCY VILLAGE MAY 10

John XXIII year 7.1 and 7.2 Magis students with the Mercy Care residents for a group photo after the morning tea. The students presented the residents with a glossy hardcover book containing biographies students had written, illustrated with photographs. Gabriela Di Perna from Griffiths University, who coordinated the research program, is in the back row, centre.