PETER'S PENCE

SATURDAY 29 AND SUNDAY 30 JUNE 2024

This weekend there will be a special collection for “Peter’s Pence”. Catholics around Australia are being encouraged to support the Peter’s Pence Appeal.

Donations supports Pope Francis’ mission from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education and peace. Peter’s Pence also aims to support a range of charities that bring aid and comfort to the poor, children, families, the elderly, the marginalised, victims of war and natural disasters, refugees and migrants.

RICHMOND CATHOLIC PARISH REMEMBERS GRAEME HOOD

On Sunday 30 June at the 9.30am Parish Mass, we will be remembering Graeme Hood, a faithful and supportive member of our Parish Faith Community.

Graeme’s children, Kristina, Amanda and Trevor and his grandchildren, Emma and Lucy, his sister Jennifer and her children, Barnaby and Jacinta will be participating in the Mass.

They will stay for the “cuppa” after Mass and we are sure that they would love to speak with the Parish community about Graeme. Richmond Catholic Parish was a very important part of Graeme’s faith life. Please continue to pray for the Hood family.

Stay Connected!

If you would like to receive the weekly bulletin via email, please sign up on the parish website or simply scan the QR code.

A JESUIT PARISH
OUR MISSION

We share responsibility to: Practise and promote gospel values, recognise and respond to the ever-changing needs of the community and foster a faith that leads to justice. As a parish open to change desiring to be a community, we strive to live the gospel values of: Diversity, Hospitality and Inclusivity.

We respectfully ACKNOWLEDGE the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation, as the traditional caretakers of the land which is the Richmond Catholic Parish.

We acknowledge the Elders, past & present. May we too, be good stewards of this land.

CHILDREN & ALL
VULNERABLE PEOPLE

Richmond Catholic Parish holds the care, safety and wellbeing of children and all vulnerable people as a central and fundamental responsibility for our community.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father. You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sin of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One; you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

A reading from the book of Wisdom

It was the devil's envy that brought death into the world.

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. To be – for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying. Yet God did make man imperishable, he made him in the image of his own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave (R.)

2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R.)

3. The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing, O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 8:7. 9. 13-15

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Your abundance should supply their want.

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 5:21-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Young girl, I say to you, arise.

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I will be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?" But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.'

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

O Father, I pray for them, that they may be one in us, that the world may believe that you have sent me, says
the Lord.

ADORATION TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Come and join us:

Every Friday at St. Ignatius Church from 11:00am-12:00pm, followed by the 12:00pm weekday Parish Mass.

ST. IGNATIUS CHURCH - STAY FOR A CUPPA

Our monthly "cuppa" after Mass is proving to be a great success with more and more Parishioners enjoying each other's company over a cup of tea or coffee.

Our next "cuppa" after Mass is on:

Saturday 29 June after the 5.00pm Vigil Mass.

It will be held in the Presbytery Kitchen.

Sunday 30 June after the 9.30am Mass.

It will be held on the veranda outside the Presbytery.

STAY AND LINGER A WHILE AS A FAITH COMMUNITY!

ST IGNATIUS MEN'S SHED

It has come to my attention and at the suggestion of some men from our parish, to start a Men's Shed. I have never been part of one, but I believe it is time for me to gather men and do something meaningful together. Whether it just to have a cup of tea and/or sharing about their lives or spending a moment in prayer together. For those more practical, this could mean doing some carpentry, or fixing electrical equipment. Anything is possible. If you are interested, please talk to me directly, or call the parish office and leave your name and number. I hope to get this initiative started soon, but would first have a gathering of the men in the parish to hear from you as to what you would like to see happen as part of the Men's Shed. I will set a date and time in a few weeks to meet you. - Fr Trung Nguyen SJ, PP.

VINNIES WINTER APPEAL

Richmond Catholic Parish is supporting the St Vincent de Paul Society's Winter Appeal. Each year the Winter Appeal plays a vital role in enabling the good works of the Society. With your support, we hope to achieve a strong result so we can continue serving the community.

The Society's Richmond Conference was established in our parish in 1900 and has been serving those in need since then. During the last 12 months, our Conference members have made 210 visits to needy households and provided over $19,000 in food vouchers and Vinnies' shop cards as well as providing furniture to 13 households.

Parishioners are encouraged to donate to help provide people who are at risk of or experiencing homelessness and those struggling with cost of living pressures with immediate practical assistance and long-term support.

Please do so by donating to our Richmond Conference in any of the following ways:

- Online at vinnies.org.au
- By calling 13 18 12
- Collect an envelope in the Church and either post the envelope or return it to the Parish Office.

PLEASE KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS

Unwell:

Antonio Bresolin & Rachael Kennedy

Recently Deceased:

Fr. Barry Ryan, formerly from the Diocese of Ballarat.

Richmond Catholic Faith Community would like to keep those in our community in our prayers. If anyone has family/friends/neighbours who are sick or have recently passed and would like their names inserted in the Parish Bulletin, please notify the parish office by Thursday 10.00am by ringing 8420 6789 or email: parish@ignatius.org.au. Their names will remain in the bulletin for a few weeks. For privacy reasons people must give their permission before their names can be included.

FEAST DAYS
