

APPLICATION FORM – SEMESTER 1, 2017

YoWo Music is a contemporary music program aimed at high school-aged girls interested in pursuing music. The program is delivered via a series of weekly workshops where participants have the opportunity to rehearse and learn about a range of musical styles in a band setting, build skills and confidence under the guidance of female mentors, meet new friends and most importantly – enjoy playing music! Each program lasts one semester with workshops held every Sunday. The program concludes with a performance at a local music venue.

Application Procedure

Applicants wishing to participate in the Semester 1 2017 YoWo Music Program are required to submit this application form no later than Wednesday 7th December 2016, 5pm. All applicants will be requested to attend an audition/interview on either Sunday 11 December 2016 or Sunday 29 January 2017 to determine their suitability for the program.

Important Information

- Must have access to your own instrument. Drum kit, piano, bass amp and guitar amp will be provided. Guitarists/bassists are required to bring their own lead. Drummers are required to bring their own sticks and cymbals
- Applications are DUE no later than Wednesday 7th December 2016, 5pm
- Program cost is a total of $660 - this cost is non-refundable. A payment plan is available to assist with this if requested. A 10% sibling discount is available if two or more applicants participate in the program from the same family.
- Auditions and interviews will be held on either Sunday 11 December 2016 or Sunday 29 January 2017 at Moreland City Band Hall, 16-22 Cross Street, East Brunswick.
- The Semester 1 program commences on Sunday 19th February 2017 and concludes on Sunday 25th June 2017, with ensemble rehearsals taking place over the course of the semester as well as 2 guest artist workshops (TBC). No workshops or rehearsals will take place during the mid-semester holiday, or on the Queens Birthday long weekend in June.
