Plenary Council 2020: Discernment Stage
 How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is: Missionary and evangelising; Inclusive, participatory and synodal; Prayerful and Eucharistic; Humble, healing and merciful; Open to conversion, renewal and reform; and A joyful, hope-filled and servant community?

We are beginning to discern the six national themes in preparation for the Plenary Council. There will be meetings where we will spend time in prayer and discernment for each theme. Please keep looking in the Bulletin for where and when those meetings will occur.
Animators will speak at next weekends Masses 7/8 Sept

THANK YOU to the Corrimal choir and Andrew. You greatly enhanced the sound for the occasion of Monsignor Graham's Golden Jubilee. We are very grateful. The sound and the singing were magnificent and the Mass was a wonderful celebration. (Unanderra Parish)

Responsorial Psalm: God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Take my yoke upon you; learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart. Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel Reading: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

On a sabbath day Jesus had gone for a meal to the house of one of the leading Pharisees; and they watched him closely. He then told the guests a parable, because he had noticed how they picked the places of honour. He said this, 'When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take your seat in the place of honour. A more distinguished person than you may have been invited, and the person who invited you both may come and say, "Give up your place to this man." And then, to your embarrassment, you would have to go and take the lowest place. No; when you are a guest, make your way to the lowest place and sit there, so that, when your host comes, he may say, "My friend, move up higher." In that way, everyone with you at the table will see you honoured. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted.' Then he said to his host, 'When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not ask your friends, brothers, relations or rich neighbours, for fear they repay your courtesy by inviting you in return. No; when you have a party, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; that they cannot pay you back means that you are fortunate, because repayment will be made to you when the virtuous rise again.'

Communion Antiphon: How great is the goodness, Lord, that you keep for those who fear you.

Next weekend's readings 23rd Sunday in Ord Time Yr C: Wis 9: 13-18; Philemon 9-10, 12-17; Lk 14: 25-33

A PRAYER FOR FATHERS ON FATHERS DAY

God our Father, we give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find the courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for our own fathers, who have supported and challenged us; May they continue to lead in strong and gentle ways.

We remember fathers around the world, whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice. We remember fathers, grandfathers and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen

Please pray for: All in our hospitals and Nursing homes.
