

Sarah's Diary

July 15 1808

Dear Diary,

Today I was cleaning the breakfast dishes and I think I did it a bit too rough. One of the plates snapped in half, Alice saw the dishes break and Alice will take the blame if I take her outside, MRS. Owen doesn't like Alice going outside. I then took Alice to the river, but Alice requested a blanket, while I was gone Alice seemed to have undressed and jumped into the river Alice was then really cold and had a horrible cough.

Dear diary,

Mrs Owen still somehow hasn't found the broken plate, for Alice to not do me about the plate incident I was to take her up a tree. Doing this let me learn a lot more about Alice, see Alice uses a wheelchair. Alice jumped out of the wheelchair (not literally) Alice and I were at the top of the tree, (Alice has an unknown sickness) Alice and I were chilling at the top and Mrs Owen came out, with the plate, Mrs Owen saw that we were having fun and let us be, Alice then started coughing, now unfortunately Alice is dead.
