

Minor Behaviour — Consequence Wheel

Purpose: This consequence wheel guides staff through the four escalating steps for managing minor student behaviour. Beginning with a calm, private redirect, each step represents a considered and proportionate response. Staff move through the steps only if the behaviour continues, ensuring students receive consistent, fair, and restorative support at every stage.

