

Our Impact

Martha* and her family came to Australia seeking asylum. Instead, they were shocked by an ugly reality. Soon, Martha and her children walked out of what was meant to be a safe refuge as survivors of family violence. Sadly, that sense of relief turned to fear as Martha was forced to face the harsh reality of being a single mum, with three young children, no income, no support, and nowhere to go. After being put into emergency accomodation, Big Group Hug stepped in with key essentials to help this family rebuild.

Community Help for Families in Need

Who is Big Group Hug?

Big Group Hug is a volunteer-driven, not-for-profit organisation that supports vulnerable and disadvantaged Victorian children in need.

How do we help?

By providing new and pre-loved essential items to help families care for their children, aged from newborn to 16-year-old. We also encourage the upcycling, recycling and rehoming of pre-loved items to reduce landfill and the environmental damage caused by waste.

How do we distribute donations?

Donated items are checked, sorted and distributed directly through Maternal and Child Health workers and other community welfare agencies.

Can you help?
