The Marcus Rosin Instrumental Music Scholarship

2027 Nomination Form

In memory of Marcus Rosin (a former student of ENPS), the school is once again offering one student an Instrumental Music Scholarship. This scholarship is an annual award and entitles one student to a year of free instrumental music tuition. Nominations are open to all ENPS students. A panel comprising of representatives from the family, the school and the instrumental music program will select the successful recipient. Nominations close on Thursday 19th November and the successful recipient will be announced at the school assembly on Friday 18th December.
