Tennis – Around the Grounds

Year 6

The 6A team had a tremendous morning defeating SLC 8 - 0. All players won their singles matches as well as their doubles and showed great sportsmanship in their convincing wins. Congratulations to Oscar White, Euan Davidson, Sam Mapledoram & Felix Nolan.

Our 6B team also won their matches overall, taking out 6 sets to SLCs 2. Daniel Ortiz, Hamish Ansell & Finley Nicholson all won their singles matches convincingly with Lachlan Chandler unfortunately suffering a defeat at the hands of his opponent. Marist also won 3 out of the 4 doubles matches of the morning which assisted them in an overall win on the morning. Congrats to our 6B team on the fine display of tennis.

Year 5

Our 5A team had a convincing defeat of their SLC opponents taking out the matches by 7 sets to 1. All of our 5As won their singles match by either a 6-3 or 6-4 victory, with closer matches in their double's fixtures. Well done to Tim Watts, Jack Lambley, Gabriel Pua & Andrew Vetter for their first official representation of Marist Ashgrove on the tennis court.

Our 5B team suffered a narrow defeat by SLC, losing 5 sets to 3. Matt Campbell hung on for a close victory in his singles (7-6), with Roy Power winning his (singles) match 6–3. Ryan Heisel & Felix Law unfortunately lost their singles matches to stronger opponents and look forward to future successes as they hone their skills. Again, these four lads are to be congratulated on their first representation of the College on the tennis court.
