What does the Scholarship Offer:

- Scholarship entry + instrument hire + tuition support

What we expect from you:

- Show Growth – commit to regular practice and ensemble participation
- Be an Ambassador – perform at school/community events and promote the program with pride.

Why apply?

- Access to hire instruments without the upfront cost.
- Support to achieve your identified musical goals and ambitions
- Be part of a vibrant, supportive music community.
- Gain leadership skills in representing your school, the Martin Carlson Foundation, SoundHouse Music Alliance and Music for All Music Scholarship Program at events.

Who can apply?

- Students passionate about music.
- Students ready to commit time, effort, and enthusiasm.
- Future leaders who want to inspire others through music.
- Students who have participated in the SGSMP for at least one year
- The scholarship is aimed at students who would most benefit from having their tuition costs covered

Mid Year Review

- Scholarship recipients will participate in a mid-year review of their goals and progress to ensure they are meeting the expectations of the scholarship and to provide mentoring and support for them to meet their goals. The review will also look at evidence of regular practice and ensemble attendance which are cornerstones of the scholarship.

How to apply

- Speak to your music teacher to get a copy of the application form (and ask them to write a letter of reference while you're speaking to them!)
- Fill out your form and submit to SGSMP Administrator, Anthony Foon: anthony.foon@education.vic.gov.au

Applications due Friday 14th Aug 5pm
