AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

Community Achiever Program (CAP)

As a Year 12 student, do you demonstrate leadership in your school or workplace, coordinate a community initiative, volunteer in a local cultural, sporting or religious group or provide care to someone in need? ACU's Community Achiever Program is designed to acknowledge commitment to our local communities.

The Community Achiever Program (CAP) recognises a students' potential to achieve great things. A successful CAP application means a student could receive a provisional university offer as early as August to study at ACU. Being part of this CAP group also offers successful students' unique opportunities to enhance their leadership and volunteering skills, while they study at ACU.

CAP applications to study in 2021

- Open – Wednesday 1 May 2020
- Close – Wednesday 12 August 2020 (Melbourne courses)
Wednesday 2 September 2020 (Ballarat courses)
- Offers released early September to mid-September 2020

Students are encouraged to begin gathering their required documentation now to submit with along their application. Failure to meet all the requirements for the CAP will result in not being considered for the program. Students are encouraged to browse how the CAP is assessed and offered so they can make sure their submission is well-written, and also provides guideline minimum ATARs required.

Communication Degrees at Deakin University

Deakin offers a suite of Bachelor of Communication degrees, and they are briefly profiled below. The VCE prerequisite for all four courses is an English.

1. Bachelor of Communication (Advertising)

Do you have a way with words and consider yourself a confident problem-solver? Catch people's attention, understand the world of brand communication and tell the story that sells. Students get to explore the principles and practice of advertising with hands-on learning; they get to experiment with future-focused approaches to brand communication, and critically evaluate the role and impact of advertising on society.

Find out more at Bachelor of Communication \(Advertising\)

2. Bachelor of Communication (Digital Media)

Do you want to carve a career in today's rapidly evolving media climate? Combine your interests in communication technologies, social media and content production to discover a career in digital media. Through the Bachelor of Communication (Digital Media), students get to develop confidence in their creative, analytic and production skills to communicate professionally across traditional and digital platforms. They also learn how to engage audiences, build communities and help organisations and clients with digital content solutions.

Find out more at Bachelor of Communication \(Digital Media\)

3. Bachelor of Communication (Journalism)

Do you want hands-on real-life newsroom experience while you study? In today's fast-paced digital age, we've never been hungrier for news – sharing it with the masses in real time, as it happens. The Bachelor of Communication (Journalism) will give students the skills to unearth a great news story, engage with their audience and deliver the news across a range of media platforms - newspaper, radio station or television.

Find out more at Bachelor of Communication \(Journalism\)

4. Bachelor of Communication (Public Relations)

Do you want to create, inspire and problem solve? Steer your way to a dynamic career in communication? In the Bachelor of Communication (Public Relations) students get to build the reputation of brands, people and organisations with skills and techniques they develop. They learn how innovative and ethical communication fosters meaningful relationships with stakeholders as they develop the capabilities to create inspiring campaigns and events, manage issues and becoming adaptive communications experts.

Universities in Western Australia

There are five universities in Western Australia, one of which – the University of Western Australia – is a member of the Group of Eight universities.

1. Curtin University

Curtin University is a large multi-cultural university. It has a strong commitment to international engagement with Australia's third largest international student population. It maintains campuses in Malaysia and Singapore while also conducting face-to-face teaching in a number of countries. This cultural diversity adds a rich and valuable dimension to its campus atmosphere and also prepares the graduates to live and work in an increasingly global environment.

Curtin is also fundamentally committed to providing regional education within Western Australia through a number of campuses and education centres spread across the state, but also has a campus in Sydney where it offers a range of business courses. Curtin University recently introduced undergraduate medicine.

Visit Curtin University to find out more.

2. Edith Cowan University (ECU)

Established in 1991, Edith Cowan University (ECU) is a large multi-campus institution serving communities in Western Australia and a significant cohort of international students. ECU is considered a pioneer in the development of alternative entry pathways to higher education, helping Western Australians reach their potential.

Visit Edith Cowan University \(ECU\) to find out more.

3. Murdoch University

Murdoch University has more than 18,000 students and 1,400 staff with a desire to discover, use their imaginations and ultimately make a difference. There are over 200 undergraduate degrees and postgraduate courses offered across a range of disciplines, including Veterinary Science, Law, Education, Psychology, Business, Security Terrorism and Counterterrorism and Nursing. The university is recognised for excellent teaching, ground-breaking research and high student satisfaction rating.

Find out more at Murdoch University.

4. University of Western Australia (UWA)

The University of Western Australia (UWA) has very high quality undergraduates and this is underpinned by the fact that the proportion of UWA graduates accepted into full-time employment within five months of completing their course is the highest of all Western Australian universities and among the highest in Australia. UWA offers graduate Medicine.

Visit University of Western Australia \(UWA\) to find out more.

5. University of Notre Dame Australia (UNDA)

The University of Notre Dame Australia (UNDA) was founded through an Act of the Parliament of Western Australia in December 1989, and now has over 7000 students enrolled on its three campuses in Fremantle, Sydney and Broome. UNDA offers graduate medicine, and it is offered at both the Fremantle and Sydney campuses. Visit University of Notre Dame Australia \(UNDA\) to find out more.

Psychology Degrees offered in Victoria in 2020

Psychology is a popular field of study in Australia and is taught at universities in every state and territory. With diverse workplace settings and areas of expertise, psychology can be a highly rewarding and satisfying career choice. Psychologists who complete postgraduate studies in specific areas of psychology may be eligible to receive area of practice endorsement from the Psychology Board of Australia. Find out more at Australian Psychological Society \(APS\) - Careers in Psychology

Students are reminded that, for the most part, the only VCE prerequisite subject for university entry is an English. Students should verify this at VTAC. Please note that after completion of an APAC accredited undergraduate degree, a further minimum of three years education and training in psychology are required to register as a psychologist in Australia.
