

Harry's Scary Swimming Lesson

Splash!! Went the water as Harry slipped in.

"Help! I cannot swim" he yelled.

Harry was at the beach to learn how to swim. He was waiting for his friend Loona but she was late, so he tried to swim by himself.

She finally came and screamed, "What are you doing? You weren't supposed to get into the water."

"Help! Loona said. "I will be back."

She ran to get a lifeguard.

"What are you doing here?" he asked.

"My friend is drowning and I need help" she said.

They grabbed a rescue board and went to rescue Harry. The lifeguard swam out on the board to get Harry and take him to safety.

Harry said, "I am never going in the water again until I know how to swim."
