PHILLIP ISLAND ADVENTURE RESORT

By Raiden and Trey

THE BUS AKA THE LONG DRIVE.

This adventure starts when we get to school with our bags, our very heavy bags that pulled off our shoulders, not literally but it sure felt like that. So when we got our bags in the bus our shoulders felt relieved and relaxed. On the way there we played with Drago [stuffed toy dragon] and looked out the window. When we got to San Remo, which was near the bridge to Phillip island, we saw giant pelicans and pesky seagulls.

As I got pulled up, my feet was not touching the ground then finally I was at the tippy top then I pulled the rope that released me. Then I swang, I wanted to scream but I could not because I was frozen.

Raiden POV of the flying fox.

Crunch! crunch! crunch! The flying fox was here. Alright said Will, time to go through.
