

Product Safety Recall

Anko Gel Pak

Kmart Australia Ltd.

Gel pack to keep chilled food cool or for topical application of minor injuries.

- 42010777 – Anko Small Gel Pak
- 42010784 – Anko Large Gel Pak

Dates available for sale:

Small: 18 March 2014 – 10 December 2025

Large: 11 February 2014 – 10 December 2025

Reason the product is recalled:

The product is being recalled because the gel packs may contain ethylene glycol, a toxic substance.

The hazards to consumers:

If packaging becomes damaged, ethylene glycol can leak out. If swallowed, ethylene glycol can cause irreversible injuries or death.

What consumers should do:

1. Stop using the Gel Pak immediately and keep out of reach of children.
2. Return the product to a Kmart store for a full refund.

If you suspect someone has swallowed the contents of a gel pack, call the Poisons Information Centre for information and advice on 13 11 26.
