BABY'S INTRODUCTION TO SOLID FOOD

ONLINE VIA ZOOM

Facilitated by Maternal and Child Health Nurse and Paediatric Allied Health Practitioners

Run every second month throughout the year you will learn how to safely introduce solids to your child. Get information on weaning, allergens and food sensitivities as well as different feeding approaches.

This session covers

- How to tell when your baby is ready for solid food
- What foods to start with and how much to offer
- Foods you should avoid
- The difference between gagging and choking
