

Paragraph 2: Main idea : T: A good sports coach is knowledgeable and has experience in the sport they are coaching. E : has played sport when they were younger, they have game experience and understand what it is like to play. Have a very good understanding of the sport and how to better their team and players for games. E : my basketball coach from a couple of years ago was a young guy that was also playing basketball. Because he was young he understood what we liked and also knew the style of basketball for this generation. He is the best coach I have had. L : a great sports coach is knowledgeable and has lots of quality experience in the sport they are coaching.		Paragraph 3: Main Idea: T: A good sport coach need to be motivational and be able to encourage his players when needed. E: teams need someone that can inspire and motivate them to have a great performance. A coach that can do this can change an outcome of the game and be the reason for a miracle comeback depending on what he says to his team. E: My football coach from last year was the most passionate coach I have had he cared for all of his players and wanted the best for us. We were playing the top team and desperately needed a win. We were 6 goals down going into the last quarter. We had no hope, however our coach had the most inspiring speech we have ever heard, he made us believe when no one else did and we won the game by 2 points in a miracle comeback L: this is why a coach needs to be able to motivate and inspire his team because until the siren goes anything is possible.
	Paragraph 1: Introduction Topic: what makes a good sports coach, A good sports coach needs to build a relationship an trust with the athlete they are coaching to do this they need to show good characteristics

	such as a Good knowledge/experience of the sport/area that they are coaching. Good motivational skills/encourager Good communication skills
Paragraph 4: Main idea: .good communication skills T: For a team to be successful the coach must be able to communicate with his players on his goals and his ideas and tactics. E:A team that has a coach that doesn't explain what his goal is or what he is trying to do is going to frustrate players and parents, this is going to make players not want to play and cause tension between each other. E: My basketball coach this year did this and was terrible. We barely won a game and he was open to no feedback and we didn't know what was going on this resulted in feeling like we are wasting our time and we didn't want to play anymore. L: this shows the impact a coach can have on his players and show the positive and negatives effects and it all comes down to communication.		Conclusion Go over main points and summarise what I have said
