Jubilee Year 2025—Pilgrims of Hope

Just as we mark significant milestones such as our 25th, 50th, 75th, or 100th birthdays or wedding anniversaries, the Church invites us to recognize every 25 or 50 years as a special year of grace, renewal, and spiritual growth.

The theme for the Jubilee Year 2025 is "Pilgrims of Hope." By choosing this theme, Pope Francis calls us to rediscover our vocation to be living signs of hope in the world. He reminds us that our journey toward eternity is a shared pilgrimage, where we must always trust in the Lord's infinite love and mercy, much like children.

The Jubilee Year 2025 will officially begin on Christmas Eve when Pope Francis will open the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica. In our Archdiocese, we will begin the Jubilee celebrations early, with a special inauguration this Sunday, November 24th, at the 11 a.m. Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral, on the Feast of Christ the King. You are warmly invited to join in this sacred moment of grace and hope.

"Pilgrims of Hope"—What Does It Mean?

- Pilgrimage: Life itself is a journey. As "pilgrims," we are called to walk together in faith, trusting God and supporting one another as we move toward our ultimate destination: eternal life with Him.
- Hope: Hope is a vital virtue that inspires us to trust in God's promises, even amid challenges. It encourages us to look beyond difficulties and believe in a brighter future anchored in Christ.

Let us embark on this Jubilee Year as "Pilgrims of Hope," journeying together with faith and trust in God's promises. May it be a time of profound grace for each of us and for our parish community.

Let us prepare with joyful hearts!

First Reading: Daniel 7:13-14

A reading from the prophet Daniel

I gazed into the visions of the night. And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man. He came to the one of great age and was led into his presence. On him was conferred sovereignty, glory and kingship, and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants. His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away, nor will his empire be destroyed.

Second Reading: Revelations 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

Gospel: John 18:33-37

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

MEMORIAL MASS

Thank you to everyone who joined us for the Memorial Mass to honor and pray for your loved ones. It was a deeply moving celebration where we gathered as one family in faith, remembering those who remain forever in our hearts. We hope you found comfort in the shared prayers and the peace of Christ.

As Jesus said, “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). May His promise bring you strength and solace, and may you find comfort knowing that our loved ones now shine like stars in heaven, their light guiding and inspiring us from above.

A special and heartfelt thank you to all the volunteers whose dedication and effort made this Mass so meaningful. From the thoughtful planning to the smallest details, your contributions created a sacred space of reflection and connection for everyone present. We are truly blessed by your generosity and service.

“Let all that you do be done in love.” May your hearts be filled with hope and your path illuminated by the love you have shared.

Thank you and God Bless!
