

Pirates Past Noon Information

Students are to wear their sports uniform next week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Costumes

You will need to ensure your child has the following 'black basics';

- long black pants or black leggings
- black short sleeve top or black singlet top
- black school shoes
- black socks

All other parts of the costume will be distributed by class teachers on the day for Performance One at 2pm and in the evening for Performance Two 6pm.

Makeup - Students are welcome to wear foundation, eyeliner and lipstick (for both performances). A little extra makeup will be applied for main characters by the teachers responsible for makeup.

Wednesday 13 September / 8.45am - 3.30pm & 5.20pm - 7.15pm

Students are to come to school wearing their sports uniform and bring 'black basics' in their school bag.

Performance One 2pm

Students will change into 'black basics' at school and will change back into their sports uniform before dismissal and black basics returned home.

Performance Two 6pm

Students are required to be at school dressed in their 'black basics' by 5.20pm sharp.

Students will enter via the main gate and meet their class teacher in their classroom. After you have dropped your child off you are welcome to make your way across the road to Logue Hall. On arrival please enjoy the pirate themed magnificent artwork on display. You will then show your ticket and be ushered to your seat. Please note that there is no allocated seating. Teachers will walk students across to the St Mary's College Campus for the performance.

At the end of the production students will be instructed to meet their class teacher to return items of clothing and props. You will then be invited to collect your child from their class teacher. If you are not attending Performance Two at 6pm please ensure you collect your child from their classroom teacher at 7:15pm from Logue Hall.
