Marist 6As put in an excellent all-round performance with a most comprehensive victory over Villanova.

Put into bat, Marist amassed a most respectable total of 7/136. The feature of the teams batting was the excellent running between wickets from all team members. Opening batsman George Swan formed a number of very good partnerships on his way to another game top score of 24 not out. He was capably assisted by Will Robbins who also featured with a superb knock of 15 not out.

Defending the total of 136 and with ball in hand Marist bowled and exceptional line and length with our bowlers being rewarded with many of the opposition dismissals coming from being cleaned bowled. The bowling was very well supported with excellent fielding; many wonderful catches were taken, highlighted by Harry Gerraghty's amazing grab at mid-wicket. Every piece of fielding was showcased by the extra effort that was on display by all fielders. Best bowling figures were achieved from Charlie Maclean who delivered a withering spell of bowling claiming 3/1. George Bond also provided an amazing opening spell of bowling owning figures of 2/1. Marist 6A's removed Villanova all out for 40 to record a most impressive victory.

This victory was a most comprehensive team effort with all disciplines of the game being demonstrated at a very high level from all team members...the team has been building nicely throughout the season and are now reaping the benefits of consistent effort at training and playing well together as a team. We very much look forward to our next challenge this coming Saturday!

6B Blue

The 6B Blue team delivered an outstanding performance in their cricket match against Villanova, easily defeating them by a margin of 162 to 53. Marist's batsmen made light work of the chase, with Liam Tamer leading the charge, finishing unbeaten on 36. He was well supported by Chase Richardson, who made 17 not out, and solid contributions from Josh George (15) and Sam Wiggins (15 not out). Despite Villanova's very slow over rate, Marist held their focus and posted an impressive total, demonstrating excellent concentration throughout their innings.

In reply, the Marist bowlers and fielders continued to shine, reducing Villanova to just 53 runs. The team started strongly with an early run-out, setting the tone for the rest of the match. Harrison Davis, who had previously taken off the wicket-keeping gloves, contributed with two wickets, while all the bowlers maintained tight lines, offering Villa few opportunities to score freely. Marist's disciplined bowling and exceptional fielding ensured a dominant victory, cementing their well-earned win."

6B Gold

First bit of cricket in 2 weeks after a cyclone was going to be hard. A slightly cold and slightly damp start looked promising for a first bowling innings. A really strong attack from the Eddie's openers showed what a few weeks off does to a team. A wicketless and high scoring first session was seen off with an excellent over from Eddy Moloney with textbook line and length pace bowling. A second session of more of the same from Eddie's putting on runs and not losing wickets. All up into the second last over with a brilliant team run out. Last over by Pat Spry-Bailey saw 2 consecutive wickets giving him a hatrick chance, unfortunately no luck, but a ball later another run out to finish the innings.

A chase of 130 was daunting but doable, a strong partnership at the start between Tom Laherty and Clancy Schmidt was unfortunately ended with Tom out on his last ball before retiring. What followed was a few quick wickets with not many runs scored due to some incredible fielding by Eddie's to both stop boundaries and hold onto even the hardest of catches. Eddy Moloney, coming in in the middle order looked dangerous, with Ben Blinkhoff and Eddy a striking combo in the middle with good running and strong shots was cut short by an unlucky shot off Ben to be caught deep fine leg. Eddie's made it look easy in the field and the tail end fell without enough runs on the board.

Tough game boys but understandable considering coming off a 2 week break. Training this week will be intense but we can come back strong for the final round."

With cyclone Alfred cancelling the boys training for the last two weeks, we were unsure with how we would perform, however the boys picked up where they left off notching up another win to remain undefeated. Standouts with the ball were Jack White with figures of 2/0 and Hamish Donnelly with 2/5. While in the second innings Flynn Boucaut continues to be a consistent run scorer with another top score of 16* as well as Noah Cairns with a great knock of 13*. Final scores were Marist 6C Blue 1-99 (15 overs) def. St Patrick's 6C 6-56.

Thrilled to be back on the pitch, Marist 6D looked the part in their crisp whites, ready to take on another hard-fought cricket match. Skipper Callum Murphy led from the front, keeping the team focused and composed. Strong communication and energetic chatter in the field kept spirits high, setting the stage for a nail-biting contest against Padua 6C.

In the end, we fell just 19 runs short of chasing down the target. Henry Johnson sent the stumps flying with a well-placed delivery, Ky Nixon pulled off a sharp run-out with a direct hit, and Harry Carter showcased safe hands and sharp reflexes to take a crucial catch. Our top batsman, Cooper Brandis, anchored the innings with a solid knock, keeping us in the game until the final overs.

Marist 5C Gold had a comfortable victory over SEC on the weekend. After winning the toss and electing to bowl, Patrick Rose-Diamond struck early taking two wickets in an over. Special mention to Roman Kaminsky who had an absolute belter of a day behind the stumps, making multiple diving stops. In the second innings, Marist had some great individual batting performances from Hugo Danckert and Patrick Rose-Diamond to chase down a small total set by SEC.
