What will my child do at camp?

The Kids Up Front performing arts holiday camp runs from 9:00am to 3:00pm much like a school day with a break for recess and lunch.

We offer FREE extended hours from 8:00am to 5:30pm. Children have free playtime in extended hours.

The children are grouped with others their own age.

In the morning the children in their age groups rotate around our specialist tutors and do a 45 minute session of singing, dancing and drama.

All of the age groups come together for a group singing session before lunch.

Every day after lunch all of the groups perform for each other their song, dance and part of the show.

The program culminates on Friday at 3:00pm with a fabulous musical show for parents and friends to enjoy. The camp is over after the show—around 4:00pm.

Although the program runs for five days we do offer a two day minimum booking. You can always book extra days at camp. To be in the show we have a three day minimum including show day.
