We offer a range of programs for young people between the ages of 12 - 25. However, we encourage parents and guardians to inform us if their young person requires additional support to participate in the activities listed here. We also encourage guardians' to check if the activity is suitable for their young person before booking.

No Supervision

This is a program where Young Communities do not provide supervision during attendance.

Partial Supervision

Your young person is able to leave the supervision of Youth Workers and be responsible for returning to a designated location at a specific time.

Full Supervision

Young people will be under constant supervision during a program. If your young person requires constant supervision, programs marked No/Partial Supervision may not be suitable.

Please get in touch with Young Communities if you wish to discuss the specific needs of your young person.
