Staying connected with your child while they are at boarding school can be challenging, but it can also be an opportunity to come up with creative ways to stay in touch. Here are some fun ideas to help you stay connected.

1

Create a family memory book

Create a family memory book together with your child. Include photos, mementos, and stories from your time together. Update it regularly and send it to your child at school.

2

Send a surprise delivery

Send a surprise delivery to your child, such as their favourite snacks, a new book, or a care package filled with their favourite items.

3

Watch a movie together

Choose a movie and set a time to watch it simultaneously together while video chatting.

4

Play a virtual board game

Play a virtual board game together using a website like Board Game Arena or Tabletop Simulator.

5

Share a playlist

Share a playlist of your favourite songs with your child and encourage them to do the same.

6

Read the same book

Choose a book to read together and discuss it over video chat or during phone calls.

7

Create a collaborative art project

Create a collaborative art project with your child, such as a painting or drawing that you both work on and send back and forth.

By trying out these fun ideas, you can make the most out of your time apart from your child and stay connected in a meaningful way.
