

YEAR 5

Started learning about the sun and its importance

Captured the size and relative position of the sun and planets

In our investigation we discovered how light travels through the atmosphere

Evolving our knowledge with our own research questions

Noticing how a pen bends in water to create an illusion scientifically known as refraction

Confirming how objects get their colour

Experimenting in our science lab with our own practicum reports

