

Cameron
Waters

FACT FILE

Height – 180cm

Nickname – camo

Outside car – Ford Ranger Raptor

Debut race – Bathurst 2011

Engineer – Sam Potter

Championship – Repco Supercar Championship

Car number – 6, Ford GT Mustang

Current team – Tick Ford Racing

Championships – 0

Races – 266

Race wins – 13

Podiums – 51

Pole position – 27

EARLY LIFE

WAAAH! what is that sound? it's louder than a Ford GT Mustang. that's just the sound of Cameron Christopher waters coming into this world on the 2nd of august 1994 in Mildura, vic. the first sight was cam's beloved mother nerine, his father Chris and older brother Jarrod.

SCHOOL LIFE

Cameron Waters started primary school in Mildura before moving to Melbourne for high school at Sandringham Secondary College. Cameron Waters kicked off his racing career in go-karting, collecting multiple National and State championships before graduating to Formula Vee in 2009.

CAREER

Cameron Waters started his racing career in go-karts in 2001. After competing nationally and winning multiple state championships, he then moved into open wheelers. Then he started in Formula Vee in 2009 before progressing to the Australian Formula Ford championship in 2010. He claimed podium finishes in three races and finished sixth in the championship standing, which earned him the rookie of the year title. Cameron Waters went on to win the championship the next season, taking seven race wins in his second season.

CURRENT LIFE

Cameron Waters is enjoying his current life in the Repco Supercar Championship. In his days of not racing, he likes to do snow-sports, racing sprint cars, and car restoration. His greatest achievement was getting rookie of the year title in his first season and winning seven races in his second season.

