

STUDY IN THE USA

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has 252 member colleges and universities offering athletic scholarships to over 77,000 participating student-athletes, sponsoring 27 national championships. The National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) serves as the national governing body for two-year college athletics in the United States and is the nation's second-largest national intercollegiate sports organization (second to the NCAA). This is your chance to hear from representatives from the NAIA and NJCAA on the opportunities available to Perth students to live and study in the USA.

Monday, 7 November | 6.00pm – 8.00pm
All Saints' College Centre for Performing Arts
Ewing Avenue, Bull Creek

Parking and entry through Gate 3 | RSVP is not required

Saeed Halim

Manager of international Eligibility Services, National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA)

Saeed Halim is an International Manager of Eligibility Services & InCred in the NAIA Eligibility Center. He completed his undergraduate degree at Wartburg College in Iowa and received his master from Indiana University. Saeed was a former college student-athlete in men's soccer at Wartburg College and was also a past winner of the NAIA High School Champions of Character award.

<https://www.naia.org/sports/index>

Michelle Meadows

Vice President for Operations and COO, National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA)

Michelle Meadows joined the NJCAA in June 2022 as the NJCAA Vice President for Operations and Chief Operating Officer after serving as the Athletics Director at Longwood University in Virginia, since May 2019. Meadows joined Longwood's athletic department in 2005 and played an integral role in the behind-the-scenes operations in various areas including academic services, NCAA compliance, scholarships, business operations, human resources, and facility operations. Michelle also served for four terms on the NCAA Softball Selection Committee member.

<https://www.njcaa.org/>

