

NAIDOC Week in Kindergarten

Last week, KC and KK combined classes to explore Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture as part of NAIDOC Week. Have a look at some of the fun activities!

Sensory Nature Play with Australian Animals

Building with Sticks and String

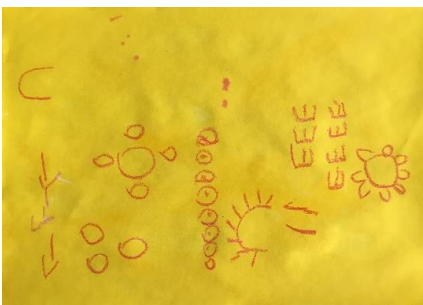

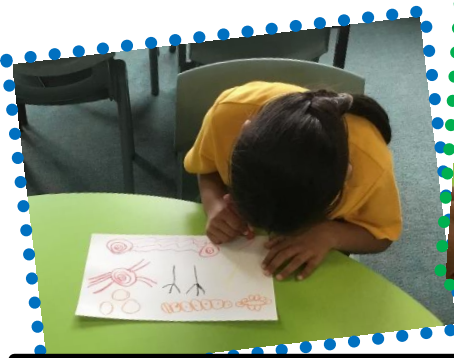

Bottle tops with Indigenous Symbols

Animal tracks, cloud, emu tracks, a star, three humans and a human print.

Madeleine

Students created Indigenous artworks using symbols to tell a story.

The sun is yellow. The people are going to eat something. They can see animal tracks. They like to eat witchetty grubs.
