NOVEMBER THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS

The month of November is dedicated to praying for our dearly departed loved ones.

It is not only about our own beloved deceased, but also remembering that each person had a family and a history that was part of something larger than themselves.

St. Ignatius Church and St. James Church have a “Remembrance Book” in which parishioners are invited to write the names of their deceased loved ones. They will be remembered in our prayers and during our Parish Masses.

SCRIPTURAL CONTEXT

The three different gospel passages offered in the lectionary for this feast all point to a God who continues to honour the covenant established with the people long ago – I will be your God and you will be my people. The feasts of All Saints and All Souls assure us that this covenant continues even beyond death. The selected readings are necessarily out of context as they are chosen to convey this particular message to suit this feast day. We are reminded that we have a destiny that extends beyond the limits of this life on earth.

A JESUIT PARISH OUR MISSION

We share responsibility to: Practise and promote gospel values, recognise and respond to the ever-changing needs of the community and foster a faith that leads to justice. As a parish open to change desiring to be a community, we strive to live the gospel values of: Diversity, Hospitality and Inclusivity.

We respectfully ACKNOWLEDGE the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation, as the traditional caretakers of the land which is the Richmond Catholic Parish.

We acknowledge the Elders, past & present. May we too, be good stewards of this land.

SAFETY OF CHILDREN & ALL VULNERABLE PEOPLE

Richmond Catholic Parish holds the care, safety and wellbeing of children and all vulnerable people as a central and fundamental responsibility for our community.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sin of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One; you alone <https://www.melbcatholic.org/richmond> are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING Jeremiah 31: 7-9

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

I shall lead them back in mercy – both the blind and the lame.

The Lord says this:

Shout with joy for Jacob!
Hail the chief of nations!
Proclaim! Praise! Shout:
The Lord has saved his people,
the remnant of Israel!
See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth;
all of them: the blind and the lame,
women with child, women in labour:
a great company returning here.
They had left in tears,
I will comfort them as I lead them back;
I will guide them to streams of water,
by a smooth path where they will not stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my first-born son.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 125. R v3

Response: The Lord has done great things for us:
we are filled with joy.

1. When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
It seemed like a dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs. (R.)

2. The heathens themselves said: ‘What marvels
the Lord worked for them!’
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad. (R.)
3. Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.
Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap. (R.)
4. They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing:
they come back, they come back, full of song,
carrying their sheaves. (R.)

SECOND READING Hebrews: 5: 1-6

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

You are a priest forever in the line of Melchizedek.

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION 2 Timothy 1: 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death,
and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 10:46-52

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Master, grant that I may see.

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, ‘Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.’ And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, ‘Son of David, have pity on me.’ Jesus stopped and said, ‘Call him here.’ So they called the blind man. ‘Courage,’ they said ‘get up; he is calling you.’ So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’

‘Rabbuni,’ the blind man said to him ‘Master, let me see again.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go; your faith has saved you.’ And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Psalm 19:6

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

IGNATIUS MEN’S GROUP UPDATE

The group met again on Monday, and were delighted to be joined by 3 new members, one from El Salvador, one from Chile, and one from China. This just shows the cultural diversity of our parish, and the yearning of many men just wanting a space to discuss and share matters relating to their faith/spiritual life.

We read a snippet of the life of a priest by the name of Walter Cizek SJ, an American-Polish Jesuit sent as a missionary to Russia in 1940, and soon was imprisoned and spent much of the next 23 years in captivity in Siberian labour camps and Soviet prisons.

If you are interested in this Ignatius Men’s Group, please contact the parish office, and stay tuned for the date and time of the next meeting.

CHILDREN’S LITURGY OF THE WORD

Children from Prep to Year 6 will be participating in the Children’s Liturgy of the Word, at St James during the 11.00am Mass on:

- October 27
- November 10, 17 and 24
- December 1 and 8

The children will leave the main body of the Church just after the beginning of Mass and return for the Offertory Procession.

The facilitator will be Mrs Annabelle Marinelli, Deputy Principal at Trinity Catholic School, with a number of parents from the school assisting her.
