We're all a little bit more connected than we think

A special Refugee Week screening of the documentary Watandar.

When former Afghan Refugee and photographer, Muzafar Ali, discovers that Afghans have been an integral part of Australia for over 160 years, he begins to photograph their descendants in a search to define his own new Afghan-Australian identity. Then the Taliban take over Afghanistan and his old country comes calling.

Watandar is presented by HARAR as part of Refugee Week and proudly supported by Southern Grampians Shire Council. All proceeds from the screening will go to support HARAR's activities in supporting refugees.
