

Strong and Deadly

Strong and Deadly program aims to create a space for young Aboriginal people aged 12-14 years to connect to cultural activities through traditional and contemporary practices.

The Strong and Deadly program covers topics such as, Identity, Reflection, Song and Dance, Artifact Making, Storytelling, Language and many more.

This program builds an understanding of Aboriginal Wellness Foundations values of Respect, Responsibility and Accountability for Self, Culture, Country and Community which all participants must follow.

WHERE: Wunggurrwil Dhurrung
19 Communal Road, Wyndham Vale
Time: 4:30 to 6:30 on a Wednesday.

As places are limited, please email your Expression of Interest to admin@aboriginalwellnessfoundation.org.au with the following information:

- Participants Name / Age
- Street Address / Suburb
- Contact Number

The Program is FREE to Aboriginal young people that live in the west metro area. 10 x 2 Hour fortnightly sessions during the school term with dinner included.