Enrol now to study a language with us in 2021

Saturday School of Community Languages is the largest provider of face-to-face languages education in NSW.

Classes are held every Saturday morning during the school term at 14 high school centres across the state.

Students from public and non-government secondary schools are eligible to enrol in their background language. There are no fees for students to enrol at the school.

All of our courses follow NESA syllabuses. Our senior courses are all board developed or endorsed and contribute to an HSC.
