

To the EVPS Community,

As I say goodbye to EVPS, I wanted to take a moment to thank the wonderful students and families who have made my time here so incredibly special.

To our students, you have always been the reason I came to work each day. Your smiles, laughter, endless curiosity, funny little moments, inside jokes, and the memories we've created together are things I will treasure forever. Thank you for allowing me to be part of your journey.

To the students who trusted me during some of your most vulnerable moments, thank you for letting me be your safe place. It has been an absolute privilege to walk alongside you, to celebrate your successes, support you through challenges, and watch you grow into the amazing young people you are becoming.

Whether I taught you in the classroom as your Italian teacher or had the privilege of supporting you later as a leader, watching your journeys unfold has been one of the greatest joys of my career. I couldn't be prouder of each and every one of you.

To our families, thank you for placing your trust in me to support both you and your children. Working in partnership with you has been a privilege, and I am grateful for the kindness, respect and confidence you have shown me over the years.

I hope you all enjoy a wonderful and restful break and have the opportunity to spend quality time with those who matter most. As you begin a new term, I wish each and every one of you all the very best for the remainder of the year. I hope it is filled with learning, growth, happiness and many moments to celebrate.

Although I may be leaving EVPS, the memories, relationships, and experiences I have shared with this community will stay with me forever. A piece of my heart will always remain here.

Thank you for allowing me to be part of your story. It has truly been an honour.

With heartfelt gratitude,

Angela Conversano
