

The Informed Parent

Managing Challenging Behaviour

About:

Finding your home to be a battle ground with acting out, tantrums or uncooperative behaviour? This workshop offers insight into the developing brain and how to use this understanding to guide and nurture your child in more harmonious ways. Moving away from punishment and towards fostering learning, this workshop explores the 'why' of children's behaviour, leading us to 'how' we can best respond.

We warmly welcome people of all genders, sexualities, educational backgrounds and walks of life. All workshops are safe, non-judgemental spaces for learning and will be facilitated accordingly.
