WHAT IS THE ROLE OF A STUDENT COUNCILLOR?

The following list is designed to help explain what is involved in being a school leader:

- To uphold the College expectations of behaviour and conduct at all times
- Leading by example and being a role model across all areas of the college
- Listen to student concerns and report any concerning matters relating to student safety and welfare
- Be a role model especially for Year 11 students and assist them to settle in
- Advocate for and support your peers and encourage others to have high expectations of themselves
- Attend a minimum 80% of fortnightly Student Council meetings
- Assist with Students Councilor roles such as running fortnightly assemblies, flags, attending P&C and Board Meetings and providing reports, attending, and supporting positive reward activities, writing Chatter articles etc.
- Assist with coordinating activities and events for students at the weekend or after school
- Be available and attend Year 11 Orientation Day and Induction Weekend
- Attend a Student Council Induction camp/excursion
- Maintain 95% school attendance (reasonable absences exempt)
- Committing to actively contribute to meetings and follow up on delegated tasks in the agreed times
- Be a delegate when called on for a variety of functions and when hosting visitors to the college
- To actively support the good name of the College in the public arena.

Student Council and Head Student Election Processes

1. Students are nominated by a peer, and seconded by another peer through completing the Year 12 Student Council Nomination Form
2. The nominated student accepts / declines the nomination. Should the student accept the nomination, they complete the form and provide an overview of what they will bring to the role.
3. Nominations are reviewed by administration to ensure nominees have understood the role and expectations outlined and the submissions are of an appropriate standard.
4. Nominations are collated and nominee profiles are distributed to students and staff 1-2 weeks prior to an election being held
5. Staff and students vote for up to eight nominees. 1st preference = 8 points, 8th preference = 1 point
6. Student Council is appointed based on ballot and announced at the Open Day Closing Ceremony
7. Incoming student Councilors have the opportunity to nominate for one of two Head Student positions.
8. An interview process is facilitated by members of Senior Staff and the outgoing Head Students.
9. Head students are appointed and announced at the Year 11 Ceremony
