 - Belinda sent email in Nov 2020 and enquired about the following:
 - wondering if the idea of a school bucket hat had ever been floated as this style of hat is easier to wash, they still provide good protection and is easier to pop in a school bag. The current hat is not easy to wash, it fades quickly, not easy to fit in a school bag and looks dishevelled very quickly.
 - Also wanted to bring up the idea of getting a school hoodie, something like McCarthy's and Tamworth South. They look great and kids love them, much more than the current zip up sports jacket
