

WHAT IS IT?

The 2015-16 Premier's Spirit of Anzac Prize competition is open to all Year 9 and 10 students in Victorian secondary schools. State finalists have the opportunity to travel on an overseas study tour to Lemnos, Gallipoli and the Western Front, during the Term 1 school holidays 2016. In addition to the students travelling overseas, regional finalists will participate in a study tour within Australia.

The costs of the study tour including airfares, meals and accommodation are fully met by the Victorian Government.

HOW DO I ENTER?

Students should submit an entry that addresses the following:

What does the "Anzac spirit" mean today in a diverse and multicultural Australia? To what extent can your definition be related to the events and people of the Great War?

Students are asked to refer to examples of the Anzac spirit from Australia's involvement in wars and conflicts from Gallipoli through to the present day, and relate those experiences to positive values in their community and activities in everyday life.

Entries can be in ONE of the following formats:

- Essay of up to 1000 words
- Poem or short story
- Audio presentation (maximum 10 minutes)
- Video presentation (maximum 10 minutes)
- Musical composition – a song or instrumental
- Digital presentation Web page or PowerPoint
- Artwork – painting, drawing, photograph or textile

Students are encouraged to source material from interviews, experiences of friends or relatives, media resources and individual research conducted on-line and/or using non-electronic sources such as those found at local libraries, RSLs or historical societies. All sources must be acknowledged and the bibliography annotated. All applications must be submitted via email.

Audio presentations, videos and musical compositions should be provided as an electronic file or uploaded to Youtube or Vimeo or a similar media sharing website and a URL provided.

If submitting an artwork, please provide a photo of your piece with a description of the size and materials used. Unfortunately we cannot accept the original artworks.

Entries that are not in essay format MUST be accompanied by a written statement of up to 500 words that answers the following questions:

How was the research conducted? Why was this format chosen? How does the format relate to the research and the topic? What are the conclusions on the topic?

WHEN CAN I ENTER?

Entries must be received by Friday 18 September 2015. Early lodgement is welcome at any time.

SELECTION PROCESS

Stage 1- Entries will be judged by Regional Selection Panels based on the following:

- Relation to the theme - 35%
- Quality of historical research - 35%
- Presentation - 30%

Stage 2 - Regional Finalists will be contacted in November/December to arrange an interview time.

Regional finalists will be required to:

- Submit a personal portfolio that outlines their achievements and participation in school and community activities
- Discuss their entry with the interview panel in a five to ten minute presentation
- Demonstrate a capacity to act as an 'ambassador' on behalf of Victoria's youth
- Demonstrate an understanding of the role that Australian armed forces played in World War 1.
